

The Duxbury Historical Society invites the community and local visitors to a service celebrating "The Abundance of the Fall Harvest" on Sunday, October 18, 2026, at 10:30 AM at the South Duxbury Church now known as the Old Meeting House.

The event will feature a three-part historical and spiritual message presented by Skip Flanders, Rosina Wallace, and Pastor Sam Newton exploring 19th-century church harvest celebrations and the story behind the 1871 hymn "The Rock Higher Than I" by Erastus Johnson. Special guest Carol Johnson Collins will do a poetry reading and family reflections on the hymn's local connection, followed by apple cider, and cider donuts.

Please note there are five stairs to enter our historic building. Donations at the door are appreciated. All proceeds benefit the Duxbury Historical Society.

Location: 459 US Route 100 South, Duxbury, Vermont

For further information please contact: Skip Flanders, Duxbury Historical Society Trustee wtbskip@comcast.net